“Brooklyn”

Tuesday, March 17th at 2pm
In Coventry Hall

Young Irish immigrant Eilis Lacey navigates her way through 1950s Brooklyn. Lured by the promise of America, Eilis departs Ireland and the comfort of her mother's home for the shores of New York City. The initial shackles of homesickness quickly diminish as a fresh romance sweeps Eilis into the intoxicating charm of love. But soon, her past disrupts her new vivacity, and Eilis must choose between two countries and the lives that exist within.

Greg Kinal

The 1930s

An overview of the events and lifestyles of the 1930's with a concentration on the Great Depression and the New Deal. Radio came into its own during this time and future TV stars emerged during the 30's.

Stock Market Discussion Group

Sat. from 8:30-10:30AM in the Cultural Arts Room

Are you interested in the stock market and experienced in technical analysis? Do you enjoy thoughtful discussion, chart review, and exploring market structure without the pressure of selling or investing? We are forming a no-obligation discussion group of focused, intellectually stimulating conversation about markets, strategy, and disciplined investing. This is not an investment club and there is no requirement to invest or share positions. The purpose is education, sharpening judgment, and exchanging ideas in a respectful, analytical environment.

We are especially interested in participants who:

- Have experience with technical analysis
- Understand market structure, volatility, and options
- Are curious about the growing role of AI in personal investing
- Want to explore practical, responsible ways AI tools can enhance research, risk management, and decision-making

If you enjoy serious market discussion and value intellectual rigor over hype, we would welcome your participation.

Pie/Pi Day

Saturday, March 14th at 1:30 in the Cultural Arts Room

Celebrate the mathematical constant π or 3.14. Make a pie, eat some pie, share a recipe in the name of math and delicious pie/pi! Sign up in the Cultural Arts Room.

Happy Hour

Wednesdays from 3:30PM to 4:30PM in Coventry Hall

March 4-Janice Mitchell and Jim Beishline

Janice is a Jazz and Blues Vocalist singing Sinatra, 40s and uplifting songs. She is a Buffalo Music Hall of Famer. She has performed with Stevie Wonder, Fabian, Yvonne Elliman and Ray Charles. Accompanied by the very talented Jim Beishline on piano makes for a stunning performance.

March 4 at 5PM -City Honors String Concert

Stay after Happy Hour to enjoy this special concert!! Five exceptional students-Matilda Cloyd, Ava Gasiewicz, Tara Land, Lucy Pendley, and Aidan Rio-will be performing as a string quintet. They are among the highest musical achievers at City Honors, serving as leaders within the school orchestra and consistently demonstrating remarkable technical skill, dedication, and artistic maturity. In addition, they participate in the Greater Buffalo Youth Orchestra and are recognized as Area All-State performers. Their shared passion and camaraderie make their ensemble not only musically impressive but also a joy to experience at events like this one!

March 11-Don Dwyer

Don is a musician, singer and songwriter from the Buffalo, NY area. He shares the music and stories of the American Civil War and has played for many years with the Irish Volunteers Civil War Band. Don talks about the meaning behind the songs, their impact in society, about the composer and his life. For this performance he will play Irish songs in the spirit of St Patrick's Day 🍀 Grab a drink and get ready to sing along!

March 17 at 7:30- 🍀 O'Braca Irish Band 🍀

Traditional Irish music band played on acoustic instruments with vocal harmonies. Don't miss this one!!!!

March 18- Paul Dahlin

Paul is a former staff member of Canterbury Woods. He plays guitar and harmonica and sings familiar songs from past generations and genres of popular music. Come see this wonderful performance and a familiar face!

March 25-Alex Cousins

Alex is a cellist, composer, and performer that is reshaping what this instrument is allowed to be. He was trained classically—but never stayed there. Now he plays electric, trusting his bow more than the rules. This is the cello, stripped back and set free.

The Cultural Arts team strives to bring the finest in culture and entertainment to Canterbury Woods. If you have any questions, please contact Christine Wirth, Cultural Arts Coordinator, in person, by email or phone. cwirth@echa.org 716-929-5127

The Finest in Live Performances - Season 2025/26

O' Connell & Company Productions

“A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum”

03/01/26 @2PM

An All-Female cast of Broadway's greatest farce is light, fast-paced, witty, irreverent and one of the funniest musicals ever written. A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum takes comedy back to its roots, combining situations from time-tested, 2000-year-old comedies of Roman playwright, Plautus, with the infectious energy of classic vaudeville. A nonstop laughfest in which Pseudolus, a crafty slave, struggles to win the hand of a beautiful, but slow-witted, courtesan named Philia for his young master, Hero, in exchange for freedom. The plot twists and turns with cases of mistaken identity, slamming doors and a showgirl or two.
